RULES OF PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF ONTARIO MADE BY THE RULES COMMITTEE UNDER THE JUDICATURE ACT

1. Rule 298 of Ontario Regulations 261/44 is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

298. Unless otherwise ordered affidavits upon which a notice of motion is founded shall be served with the notice of motion and all affidavits shall be served and filed before they are used.

2. Rule 775 of Ontario Regulations 261/44 is amended by inserting after the word "alleged" the words "whether such adultery is alleged as the cause of action or by way of revival of a prior matrimonial offence which has been condoned", and by inserting after the figures "776" the word and figures "or 776A", so that the said rule shall now read as follows:

775. Except in cases in which an order has been made under Rule 776 or 776A, every person with whom adultery is alleged whether such adultery is alleged as the cause of action or by way of revival of a prior matrimonial offence which has been condoned shall be made a party defendant in the action.

3. Rule 776 of Ontario Regulations 261/44 is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

776. If the name of the person with whom adultery is alleged is unknown to the plaintiff at the time of the bringing of the action, a Judge, upon an application, may grant leave to the plaintiff to bring the action without adding such person as a party defendant. The order granting such leave shall require that as soon as the name of the alleged adulterer is ascertained he shall be added as a party defendant, and all necessary amendments shall be made. The order shall be served with the writ. This rule shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to a counter-claim.

4. Ontario Regulations 261/44 are amended by adding the following rule:

776A. After an action has been commenced a Judge upon the application of the plaintiff may grant leave to add a further cause of action alleging adultery with a person whose name is unknown to the plaintiff. Such order shall require the amended writ of summons, the amended statement of claim and the affidavit verifying the same to be re-served, and shall further require that so soon as the name of the alleged adulterer is ascertained he shall be added as a party defendant, and all necessary amendments shall be made. Such order shall also prescribe the time within which the appearance to the amended writ shall be entered and within which the statement of defence to the amended statement of claim shall be delivered. The order shall be served with the amended writ, the amended statement of claim and the affidavit verifying the same. This rule shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to a counter-claim.

5. Rule 788 of Ontario Regulations 261/44 is amended by striking out the last four words thereof, namely, "when all parties consent", and by striking out the words "the Trial" in the last sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the article "a", and by inserting after the word "jury" where it last appears in the said rule the words "in accordance with the provisions of Rule 398", so that the said rule shall now read as follows:

788. If either party serves a jury notice, the action shall be heard at a sitting for the trial of actions with a jury and any question of fact shall be determined by the jury upon written questions submitted to them by the Judge. A general verdict shall not be taken. Notwithstanding this provision an action in which a jury notice has been served may in the discretion of a Judge be tried without a jury in accordance with the provisions of Rule 398.

6. Rule 791 of Ontario Regulations 261/44 is amended by striking out the word "copy" in the 4th sentence thereof and substituting in lieu thereof the word "copies", and by striking out the words "upon the defendant spouse" where the said words first occur in the 4th sentence thereof and by inserting the words "to the Attorney-General" in the directive address at the beginning of the notice to be endorsed so that the said rule shall now read as follows:

791. A copy of the judgment nisi shall be served upon the defendant spouse and the Attorney-General within one month from its date. Such service on such defendant must be personal unless he is represented by a solicitor or unless a Judge otherwise orders. Either before or after the expiry of the month, the time for service may be extended by a Judge, but in such case judgment absolute shall not be granted before the expiry of five months from the day of the last service. Upon the copies of the judgment nisi so served shall be endorsed a notice, signed by the plaintiff or his solicitor, in the words following or to the like effect:

To (inserting the name of the defendant spouse)

To the Attorney General

Take notice that after the expiration of six months from the date of the within judgment [or, (in case the time for service has been extended)], after the expiration of five months from the time of the service of this paper on you] a motion for judgment absolute will be made without further notice to you unless in the meantime you have delivered, [or caused to be delivered to the Registrar of the Supreme Court of Ontario at Osgoode Hall, Toronto or, (in cases where the writ has issued elsewhere than at Toronto)], to the Local Registrar of the Supreme Court of Ontario at his office in the Court House in —and to the undersigned at (giving an address for service) a written notice stating that you desire to have notice of the time and place at which such motion for a judgment absolute will be heard.

7. Rule 800 of Ontario Regulations 261/44 is amended by striking out the last sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Upon this motion, it shall be shown by affidavit that copies of the judgment nisi have been served pursuant to Rule 791, giving the dates of such service and that upon such copies so served was endorsed the notice required by Rule 791 and further it shall be shown by affidavit made after the expiration of the said six months' period or any extension thereof and within ten days of the hearing of the motion, that no appeal from the judgment nisi or from the judgment on any intervention is pending; and that no notice of intervention has been given by the Attorney-General or by any other person or that any intervention has been disposed of under the provisions of the preceding rules."

so that the said rule shall now read as follows:

800. After the expiry of the period of six months mentioned in the judgment nisi or any extension thereof, the cause may be set down for hearing before a judge in Court upon a motion that the judgment may be made absolute. Upon this motion, it shall be shown by affidavit that copies of the judgment nisi have been served pursuant to Rule 791, giving the dates of such service and that upon such copies so served was endorsed the notice required by Rule 791 and further it shall be shown by affidavit made after the expiration of the said six months' period or any extension thereof and within ten days of the hearing of the motion, that no appeal from the judgment nisi or from the judgment on any intervention is pending; and that no notice of intervention has been given by the Attorney-General or by any other person or that any intervention has been disposed of under the provisions of the preceding rules.

9. Form 64 of Ontario Regulations 261/44 is amended by striking out the words "resides at" at the end of paragraph numbered 1 thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the words "is at.....(give definite address)", [or may probably be found within .....(indicating as precisely as possible the area, district or country.)]", and by striking out the words "at" and "aforesaid" in paragraph numbered 2 thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the words "at (or within).....(as the known circumstances may best demand)" so that the said paragraphs shall now read as follows:
